Low Tea at The Cairn Hotel

Rumor has it that Low Tea was started by Anna, the 7th Duchess of Bedford (3 September 1783 – 3 July 1857). At the time, there were only two meals: Mid-morning breakfast and late dinner. However the Duchess was having a 'sinking feeling' in the late afternoons and as a solution she started having a pot of tea and a light snack in her boudoir in the afternoon. Later the Duchess decided to invite friends to join her in the sitting room where the food was served on low tables (coffee tables) placed next to sofas. Soon the idea spread and high society was sipping tea and eating nibbles in the afternoon.
